

A Hopeful Conversation / October 12, 2025
Hal Donaldson, Founder + CEO of Convoy of Hope,
Brandon Grant, Lead Pastor

When we choose to do the next kind thing God puts in front of us, He can turn small acts of compassion into movements of hope and healing that change the world.

1. The Power of One Small Act

How a simple step of obedience became the beginning of Convoy of Hope.

2. God's Story Through Convoy

An overview of how God is multiplying compassion – feeding millions, empowering women, training farmers, and responding to disasters.

3. Friendship & Partnership

The story behind Eastview and Convoy's growing relationship – and how God is weaving our missions together.

4. From Pain to Purpose

How Hal's own story of hardship shaped his heart for people in need and gave him courage to trust God for more.

5. Jesus & the Marginalized

The Scriptures and moments that continue to fuel Convoy's heart to serve "the least of these."

6. The Local Church as the Hero

Why Convoy partners with churches around the world – believing hope and healing flow best through God's people.

7. Hope for a Weary World

Where Hal sees Jesus moving today – and how hope rises even in hard places.

8. Our Shared Vision

Eastview + Convoy: Loving, life-giving people bringing hope + healing in Jesus – together.
