

The Parable of the Lost Sheep, Coin/ The Storyteller
Luke 15:1-10 / July 19, 2026
Ben Miller, ISU Encounter Pastor

In Luke 15, Jesus tells multiple stories to help us grasp just how deeply our Heavenly Father loves and pursues what matters most deeply to Him ... His children.

OUR TEXT: Luke 15:1-10

WHOEVER HAS EARS, LET THEM HEAR

- Matthew 13:9-16

DISCOVERY / OBSERVATION

- What do I learn about God?
- What do I learn about us/myself?
- What is new or confusing?
- Does this change how I think or the way I behave? (application)

LOST SHEEP, LOST COIN

ABOUT GOD

- This man welcomes sinners (verse 2)
 - Luke 19:1-10, Mark 2:13-17, Luke 7:36-50, John 8:1-11, John 4:4-42, Luke 5:12-16
- He values us so deeply
- He seeks us so intentionally
- He celebrates with great abandon

ABOUT US

- Lost is our natural state
 - Isaiah 53:6, Romans 3:23
- Our worth has a source

LOST SON

APPLICATION

- For the found - Luke 19:10
- For the lost - Jeremiah 29:13-14a