Waiting on God's Perfect Timing
Galatians 4:4 / November 30, 2025
Zach Thompson, Pastor of High School Students

As we enter the Christmas season, we are reminded that before the celebration came centuries of waiting. God's people waited on a promise—and God fulfilled it at the perfect time.

We wait with expectant hope that God's timing is perfect.

1. How do we wait with hope when we think we know what is promised?

2. How do we wait with hope when it isn't going how we would have expected?

3. How do we humbly acknowledge God's timing is better than ours?

Waiting is not wasted — God is working, protecting, and preparing in His perfect timing.

Consider these questions/prayers during your own season of waiting:

1. God, what might you be protecting me from?

2. God, what might you be preparing me for?

3. God, what might you be doing differently?

4. God, what do I need to surrender?
